BOSTON:

PRINTED BY SAMUEL N. DICKINSON & CO.

1846.

In addition to the Town and County Tax, a School Tax is assessed on the inhabitants of, and non-resident proprietors of, property in School District No. 1, (Centre District,) in the town of Worcester, amounting to the sum of five thousand five hundred and sixteen dollars sixty cents.

An Extract from the Town Records.

"We, the subscribers, Assessors of the Town of Worcester, hereby certify that we have determined that all the real estate situated within the limits of the Centre School District, in said town, and owned by either of the persons or corporations, who are assessed for the same as non-resident owners thereof, respectively, in the Town and County Tax for the year 1846, shall be taxed in said Centre District.

"And we have determined that the following described real estate, situated in said town of Worcester, and without the limits of said Centre School District, shall be taxed in said Centre School District, to wit: A tract of pasture land owned by Cyrus Gale, and situated in the northerly part of said town, near the farm formerly owned by Wm. McFarland, deceased. A tract of land owned by Luther Burnett, Jr., and situated near the farm of Oliver and Edward Curtis. The farm owned by Wm. T. Merrifield, situated in the northerly part of said Worcester. A tract of about 30 acres of land, being a part of the Alden Thayer farm, so called, and owned by Rufus Hastings. A tract of land owned by Harvey Bancroft and Isaac Bancroft, situated in the northerly part of said town, and formerly owned by Ebenezer Moore. A tract of land situated near the intersection of the Western Rail Road and Norwich and Worcester Rail Road, and the estate lately owned by Rodolphus B. Hubbard, both now owned by the Providence and Worcester Rail Road Corporation.

"And on all other real estate situated in said Worcester, and owned by non-residents, and taxed to them respectively in the Town and County Tax, for the year 1846, shall be taxed in the District in which it is located for all monies to be raised and assessed for the benefit of the several School Districts."

(Signed,)	E. H. HEMENWAY,	} Assessors of the town of Worcester.
"	FRED. WM. PAINE,
"	SAMUEL PERRY,

An Aqueduct Tax is also assessed upon the polls and estates of the Worcester Aqueduct Company, a corporation composed of the inhabitants of the Centre District, as the limits of said District were defined on the 28th day of February, 1845, amounting to the sum of nineteen hundred fourteen dollars and three cents. This tax also includes non-resident owners of real estate situated within said District.

A deduction of six per cent is made to those who pay their taxes on or before August 22d, four per cent. until Sept. 21st, and two per cent. until Nov. 20th. Payment will then be enforced immediately, agreeably to the vote of the town, passed April, 1846.

JOHN RICE is the Treasurer and Collector of the town of Worcester.
